INFINITY ROSE SECURITY

Contract Agreement Memorandum

When Infinity Rose Security and the Client agree to and sign a contract for services for an Event or any other security service provided by Infinity Rose Security. In the past there have been some issues. So we have drawn up and added this memorandum to our contract for the Client to read and sign. This must be done by the Client before Infinity Rose Security can and will provide services to the Client.

In situations that may arise at Events and other services provided by Infinity Rose Security. We have full authority to act on circumstances that may come up such as:

Crimes, medical situations, fires, riots and individuals causing disturbances, underage drinking or any other violations of any laws and rules set forth by Logan County or State or Federal law violations.

When these Situations arise Infinity Rose Security will take full control of the situation and will determine the course of action that may need to be taken. Any Client or individual at the event who violates this agreement is subject to be reported to the proper authority and may be held liable in any court action that may take place. If the Client or anyone at the event violate this agreement appropriate action will be taken as well as an additional fee being charged of $75.00
